DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chen et al. [5,415,573].

Chen et al. disclose a printed circuit board holding structure [figures 1 and 2] for attaching a printed circuit board [16] on an attachment object member, the printed circuit board defining a longitudinal direction, the holding structure comprising:

a chassis/housing [abstract, line 6]; a first guide member connected to the chassis and having a taper face [26b] for guiding the printed circuit board in the traverse direction traverse to the longitudinal direction in response to fixedly putting the printed circuit toward the chassis on the attachment object member; and a second guide member having a taper face [40] for guiding the printed circuit board toward the chassis in response to sliding the printed circuit board in the longitudinal direction.

Regarding claims 2 and 3, Chen et al. disclose the second side guide member including a stop means and side end face for the circuit board [figure 3c].

Regarding claim 4, Chen et al. disclose an elastic stop member in the attachment member [26].

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
